

Preferred Lender List

Douglas J Aveda Institute does not have a preferred arrangement with any lender, including non-U.S. Department of Education lenders, public or private.

No student is required to borrow from any lender, federal, state or private. If students and/or parents are interested in obtaining a loan, Douglas J Aveda Institute strongly encourages them to apply for loans through the Federal Student Aid program before borrowing from a private lender. A student, if eligible, may borrow Direct Subsidized and Unsubsidized loans from the U.S. Department of Education. A parent, if eligible, may borrow a Direct PLUS loan from the U.S. Department of Education. Direct loans from the U.S. Department of Education generally have more favorable loan terms than private education loans.

Please reference Private Education Loan Lenders for more information.
