National Student Loan Data System

Douglas J Aveda Institute submits any and all federal student loan data to the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS).

Federal student loans include both Subsidized and Unsubsidized Stafford loans borrowed by the student and Parent Loans for Undergraduate Students (PLUS Loans) borrowed by the parent on behalf of the student.

Loan information submitted to NSLDS is accessible by authorized users of the data system, including the student, the Institute, the U.S. Department of Education, guaranty agencies, lenders, servicers, and other authorized users.

In addition to submitting loan information to the National Student Loan Data System, the Institute also reports student enrollment information.
