Preferred Lender List

Douglas J Aveda Institute does not have a preferred arrangement with any lender, including non-U.S. Department of Education lenders, public or private.

No student is required to borrow from any lender, federal, state or private. If students and/or parents are interested in obtaining a loan, Douglas J Aveda Institute strongly encourages them to apply for loans through the Federal Student Aid program before borrowing from a private lender. A student, if eligible, may borrow Direct Subsidized and Unsubsidized loans from the U.S. Department of Education. A parent, if eligible, may borrow a Direct PLUS loan from the U.S. Department of Education. Direct loans from the U.S. Department of Education generally have more favorable loan terms than private education loans.
