2025 ANNUAL SECURITY REPORT (WITH 2024 DATA)
CAMPUS SECURITY & CRIME REPORT AND POLICY

It is the goal of Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering to offer educational training in a secure and crime-free environment. The following policies and procedures have been developed to better ensure the health and safety of students and personnel.

ANNUAL REPORTING

Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering submit annual reports to the U.S. Department of Education to comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act. This report includes the campus security policy and procedure, in addition to the disclosure of specific crimes reported within, or in the immediate area of, the school.

Information for this report is gathered from local law enforcement and the campus security authority, the Institute Director.

Content of the Annual Security Report is published on federal websites such as http://ope.ed.gov/security/ and http://nces.ed.gov/collegenavigator/. On or before October 1st of every year, the school posts its Campus Security and Crime Report and Policy on its website located in the Consumer Information section.

DISSEMINATION OF CAMPUS SECURITY REPORT INFORMATION

Each year on or before October 1st, current students and staff are emailed a message advising of the availability and location of the Campus Security and Crime Report and Policy for their review. For personnel that do not have a Douglas J email address, copies of the notice are handed out by the Institute Director and a roster of names for which the notices were hand delivered is signed by the Institute Director to attest to their delivery.

Prospective students may obtain information regarding the location and availability of the Campus Security and Crime Report and Policy from the Admissions office of their preferred campus and potential employees may do the same via Human Resources. Individuals may also request a copy of the entire report from the Director of Compliance and Student Services at (517)853-3910.

CAMPUS SECURITY AUTHORITY

The Institute Director is the designated campus security authority. All incidences of campus crime must be reported for proper action to be taken and for inclusion in the annual campus security report. The Institute Director has the responsibility of counseling students for minor infractions or violation of campus policy, as well as instructors and other designated personnel. The Institute Director will work with local, state, and Federal law enforcement officials as necessary for the safety of the school's students and staff.

CAMPUS SECURITY POLICY

Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering do not utilize campus law enforcement personnel.

Staff and students are encouraged to be responsible for their own security and the security of others by accurately and promptly reporting suspected or apparent criminal activity to the Institute Director and/or local law enforcement when the victim of such crime elects, or is unable, to make such a report. The reporting of criminal activity or suspicion of such may be reported to the Institute Director anonymously, in strict confidence, or voluntarily. The Institute Director will notify the Director of Compliance and Student Services so the information may be included in the school's annual reports. In addition, students and staff are required to participate in routine emergency drills and activities conducted by the school throughout the year.

Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering rely on local law enforcement to monitor and document criminal activity during off-campus events officially recognized by the schools.

CRIME REPORTING POLICY

Students and staff are strongly urged to report all incidences of illegal criminal activity to the Institute Director, institute personnel or local law enforcement. Institute personnel will immediately pass any information regarding suspected or known crimes and/or dangerous situations to the Institute Director.

It is the policy of Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering that any incident that constitutes a crime under local, state, or Federal law may be reported to the police at the discretion of an Institute Director. Any activity that would constitute a felony crime will be reported to the appropriate law enforcement agency by the Institute Director. Examples of such crimes would include, but are not limited to, murder, forcible and non-forcible sex offenses, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary and motor vehicle theft.

BUILDING ACCESS AND FACILITY SECURITY

Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering do not provide student housing.

Students cannot access the campus building without it first being unlocked by campus personnel. Keys to individual offices and work areas are issued only to directors, staff, faculty, and school owners as needed. Backup keys are held by the school owners. Requests for replacement or additional keys must be made to a director.

Institute directors are responsible for making sure proper lighting and clear pathways are maintained in all classrooms and building exits.

CRIME PREVENTION AND SECURITY AWARENESS TRAINING

Beginning November 2014 and every year thereafter, Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering will provide crime prevention programs for its students and staff. These presentations will be provided by trained professionals in the areas of personal safety, sexual offenses, public services, and drug and alcohol abuse among others. The scheduling of these workshops will be posted in the student lounge, classrooms and/or emailed to current students. Staff will be notified during regularly scheduled staff meetings.

PERSONAL BELONGINGS

Students are strongly encouraged to keep clinic stations and lockers securely locked at all times. Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering will not be held responsible for the theft or loss of personal property on campus.

Staff should store all personal belongings in a secure location.

MEDICAL EMERGENCIES

New students and staff at Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering are requested to disclose information about any known medical conditions in order to better assist in the event of an emergency.

If a medical emergency occurs during class, staff will attempt to keep the stricken person immobile and immediately notify the Institute Director or designee. Medical emergency personnel will be contacted at the individual's request, or in the event the stricken individual is either unconscious or perceived to be in a life-threatening condition, the Institute Director or designee will call 911.

First aid kits are located at all locations.

ALCOHOL, DRUGS, AND WEAPONS

The possession, use, sale, manufacture or distribution of any controlled substance is illegal under both state and federal laws. Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering strictly prohibit the sale, use, distribution or manufacture of alcohol and/or any illegal drugs on Institute properties or at any activity sanctioned by the school, whether on-site or off. To assist in the enforcement of drug and underage drinking laws, Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering may notify local and state authorities when any such activity occurs on campus. Any student or employee in violation of this policy may be terminated from school or employment immediately.

The possession and/or use of any weapons, including but not limited to knives and firearms, are strictly prohibited and are also cause for immediate termination.

SEX OFFENSES

A student or employee who reports to the Institute that the student or employee has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual

Domestic violence is defined as a violent felony or misdemeanor committed by the victim's current or former spouse or intimate partner, person with whom the victim has a child, current or former cohabitant, person similarly situated under domestic or family violence law, or anyone else protected under domestic or family violence law.

Dating violence is defined as violence by a person who is, or has been, in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. Whether there was such a relationship is gauged by its length, type, and frequency of interaction between the individuals.

Stalking is defined as a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for her, his, or others' safety, or to suffer substantial emotional distress.

Note: Douglas J Institute (the Institute) as written in this document refers to the following locations, unless otherwise stated:

Douglas J Institute Tennessee location – Knoxville

assault, or stalking, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, shall be provided with a written explanation of the student or employee's rights and options.

Students and employees should immediately report all sex offenses to an Institute Director. Physical evidence is crucial for the successful prosecution of all sex offenders and therefore should be preserved for proof of a criminal offense. Victims of sexual assault should avoid using the toilet, washing, changing clothes, and/or douching prior to a medical/legal exam. School personnel will assist sex offense victims if asked to do so by the victim or when the victim is unable to do so. The occurrence of the sex offense will be included in the school's annual reporting requirements.

Although Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering do not have professionally trained on-campus counselors for sex offense victims, the staff will provide whatever assistance it can. There are several public clinics and services that aid sex offense victims. If asked, the Institute Director will be happy to assist a student in contacting these and other organizations.

Sex Crime Prevention
Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering prohibit the offenses of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

Sexual activity requires consent, which is defined as voluntary, positive agreement between the participants to engage in specific sexual activity. Communicating consent can be as follows:

- Consent to sexual activity can be communicated in a variety of ways, but one should presume that consent has not been given in the absence of clear, positive agreement.
- While verbal consent is not an absolute requirement for consensual sexual activity, verbal communication prior to engaging in sex helps to clarify consent. Communicating verbally before engaging in sexual activity is imperative. However potentially awkward it may seem, talking about your own and your partner's sexual desires, needs, and limitations provide a basis for a positive experience.
- Consent must be clear and unambiguous for each participant at every stage of a sexual encounter. The absence of "no" should not be understood to mean there is consent.

Douglas J Institute Michigan locations – Ann Arbor, East Lansing, Grand Rapids, and Royal Oak
Douglas J Institute School of Barbering Michigan location – East Lansing
Douglas J Institute Tennessee location – Knoxville

- A prior relationship does not indicate consent to future activity.

Potential attacks can be avoided by recognizing warning signs and avoiding unsafe situations. Warning signs include threats of violence, jealousy, and controlling behavior. The following are safety tips that can be used to avoid unsafe situations:

- Be aware of your surroundings and avoid isolated areas.
- Avoid being alone with someone you do not trust or know well.
- Make sure your cell phone is with you and charged.
- Use the buddy system when going out or walking at night.
- Do not let others get drinks for you. Always know what is in your drink. Never leave your drink unattended.
- Be cautious of those who pressure you to drink more than you want.
- Do not give in to guilt, pressure, threats, or embarrassment.
- In case of an emergency – dial 911.

Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering encourage all members of the community to take safe and positive actions to intervene when there is a risk of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. There is no single "right" way to intervene, and what is appropriate depends on the situation and the individuals involved.

Available intervention strategies can include but are not limited to:

- Asking the Institute Director to separate the individuals involved in a non-combative matter if the issue is on campus;
- Asking the individuals involved to stop what they are doing;
- Using a distraction to stop an individual's activities;
- Stepping in and separating the people involved in a non-combative manner only if it is safe to do so;
- Ask another bystander, or several other bystanders to intervene with you only if it is safe to do so; and/or
- Notifying law enforcement by calling 911.

Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering maintain confidentiality with victims in accordance with applicable professional standards and to the extent that it is reasonably practicable. Specifically, the identity of the victim and information relating to the situation will be provided only to those individuals who have a legitimate need to know, or as reasonably necessary for investigating or resolving the situation. Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering will not utilize identifying information about the victim in records about the situation any more than is reasonably necessary, and the school will redact the victim's identifying information before disclosing such records publicly to the extent permissible by law.

Accommodating Special Requests
If requested, and if the request can be reasonably accommodated, Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering will review options for changing a victim's academic schedule after an alleged sex offense occurs.

Disciplinary Actions
Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering will convene, as needed, a disciplinary committee for hearing accusations of on-campus sex offenses between members of the institute's staff and/or student body. The disciplinary committee will consist of the Institute Director, the Education Coach and one other staff member as approved by both the accuser and the accused. If parties involved in the proceedings are not able to agree on an independent staff member, the proceedings will be conducted by the Institute Director and the Education Coach.

Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering have established the following procedures for campus disciplinary proceedings in alleged domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking cases:

1. Provide a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation and resolution.
2. Conduct investigations by officials who receive annual training on the issues related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking
3. Conduct an investigation and hearing process which protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability.
4. Ensure that the accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during an institutional disciplinary proceeding, including the opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or proceeding by an advisor of their choice.
5. Ensure the accuser and accused are notified simultaneously and in writing of the outcome of the proceeding, appeal procedures, any change to the result before it becomes final, and when the result becomes final.

The institute's final determination will be limited to any alleged sex offense and to any sanction imposed against the accused. Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering may impose any of the following sanctions following a disciplinary proceeding regarding rape, acquaintance rape, or other forcible and non-forcible sex offenses:

1. Require the accused to provide proof that professional counseling is being received.
2. Administratively dismiss the accused.
3. Hold a disciplinary hearing pending the completion of legal proceedings.
4. Dismiss the accuser's accusations as unfounded if appropriate.

Douglas J Institute and Douglas J School of Barbering will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged victim of any crime of violence or a non-forcible sex offense, the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the institute against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of the crime or offense, the information shall be provided, upon request, to the next of kin of the alleged victim.
